Elisa Miller-Out, Singlebrook Technology singlebrook.com

Singlebrook builds web and mobile software with a mission of Technology for Change. Singlebrook's services include custom web application development, mobile apps, integration, databases, content management systems and design.

Lisa Tarver, One World Futbol oneworldfutbol.com

The mission of the One World Futbol Project is to make a meaningful impact on the lives of youth around the world through the One World Futbol, a virtually-indestructible ball that never goes flat and never needs a pump. The One World Futbol Project's goal is to bring the joy of soccer and play to youth in disadvantaged communities so that children can be children no matter where they live.

Lily Scott, Veris Wealth Partners veriswp.com

Veris Wealth Partners is a wealth management firm committed to helping you align your wealth with your mission. Veris Wealth Partners operates on the principle that sustainable and impact investing are the best ways to achieve strong performance while also benefitting future generations.

Steve Kuzara, Vyykn vyykn.com

Vyykn aims to end America's addiction to bottled water with a subscription refill service, which allows customers to fill up on oxygenated and filtered water.
